MOTION TO CONVENE TO PUBLIC HEARING

Motion was made by Mrs. Lanci and seconded by Mr. Nardo to convene to a public hearing. regarding Senior Citizens and Persons with Disabilities and Limited

Income Exemptions. Motion was carried 4-0.

Mrs. Rehak detailed for the BOE the specific changes in State law affecting the Senior Citizens, NYS Real Property Tax Law Section 467, Person with Disabilities Exemptions, NYS Real Property Tax Law Section 459-c. She indicated that on July 1 of 2022, NYS passed legislation increasing the annual income from $37,399 to $58,399.

Mrs. Rehak explained those residents in the community who will be impacted by such are senior citizens and people with disabilities that have low and/or fixed income. There are currently households receiving this exemption and it is unclear at the present time how many additional homes will qualify under the statutory increase. She explained the taxable access value in those qualifying households will be calculated using a sliding scale of 5 to 50 percent off the taxable assessed value based on the household annual income threshold.

In order for these statutory changes to take effect, Mrs. Rehak explained there must be adoption locally by Nassau County for general taxes and by the individual school districts for school taxes. Based on communication from Mr. Blakeman's office in November to the school district, it was conveyed that in September of 2022, Nassau County signed into local law 8-2022 to increase the exemptions to offset the general taxes.

In conclusion, Mrs. Rehak informed the BOE other school districts in Nassau County have already adopted the statutory change in threshold. If the BOE were not to adopt the resolution this evening it can be revisited at a later date but it will not be applied to those impacted households for the next fiscal year.

Mrs. Rehak inquired of the BOE if there were any questions.

Mrs. Cmar-Grote inquired when this was last updated. Mrs. Rehak responded that due to the short length of time that has surpassed since this issue arose it has been difficult to ascertain specific information regarding the timeframe, but based on knowledge available it has not been adjusted in a very long time.

Mr. Nardo inquired if the BOE does not implement it this evening, when is the next time it can be done and what if any potential impact will that have. Mrs. Rehak responded the BOE can do this at any time, but the effective date would be impacted. For clarification, she stated if it was to be adopted in January, it would not take effect until the following fiscal year and would not be in line with the general taxes.
