

North Bellmore Public Schools School - Parent Compact

The school and parents agree to work cooperatively to maximize educational opportunities for children:

The Parent/Guardian agrees:

to provide a positive and healthy environment at home.

to ask educators for assistance in teaching and learning strategies, when needed.

to read with and/or encourage children to read each day.

to monitor our child/children's:

- Attendance at school
- Homework
- Television watching
- Computer time
- Video games

to share the responsibility for improved student achievement.

to communicate with our child/children's teachers about their educational needs.

to contact their child's teacher with questions or suggestions; and, if more information is needed, to contact the principal.

★ Remember: You may contact your child's teacher for a conference at any time during the school year.

The School agrees:

to hold high expectations for all students.

to actively involve parents in their child's education.

to provide parents with resources and information about how to help their child succeed.

to encourage parents to participate in workshops, i.e., literacy classes, math workshops.

to provide high quality curriculum and instruction.

to deal with communication issues between teachers and parents through:

- Parent/teacher conferences
- Reports to parents on their children's progress
